

The Message of the Prophets and its relevance for today

The prophets always began with the history of Israel, and reminded the people of their common heritage and the covenant into which their fathers had voluntarily entered. The obligation of the covenant were still valid. They reminded the people that they shared:

- One Heritage
- One Ancestor
- One God
- One Saviour
- One Faith
- One Covenant
- One Torah